

MALONEY'S PUB

This Irish Pub is dedicated to Laura Maloney... one of the most infamous Irish outlaws of this area. Laura was born upstairs in 1913, the first of twelve children born to Emerson and Henrietta Maloney. The family lived somewhat comfortably off of Emerson's job as a farmer. At that time, this area was an agricultural implement.

From all accounts, Laura was stunning. She did well in school but was bored with her average life, so she dropped out at age 16 and married Bud who was a truck driver. While he was away, Laura worked as a waitress; however, she was out of a job just as the Great Depression was really getting started at the end of 1929.

For the next two years, Laura robbed banks in Scott, Clinton, Cedar and Muscatine counties to bring in money for the young couple. Laura had an uncanny knowledge of every back road in these counties. This aided her numerous times when escaping from close encounters with the law.

Things improved after the Great Depression, Laura got pregnant, and like her mother, had 12 children all born upstairs. You may think this story is a bunch of baloney and except for the name, you are right.

Welcome to Maloney's!
